

The National Association of Broadcasters has no right to deny satellite radio listeners from hearing traffic and weather, as it is not only a violation of rights but an insult to even consider such a thing.